ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

The Rahway Housing Authority has prepared this Agency Plan in compliance with Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 and the ensuing HUD requirements.

We have also adopted goals and objectives for the next five years. They are stated, in detail within The Five-Year Plan.

The Rahway Housing Authority is land-locked and building saturated. To meet the needs assessment both from our own waiting list experience as well as from the data collected from the 1990 Census and Union County's Consolidated Plan, new dwellings on new land would need to be acquired. Real Estate development is a long-term commitment that depends upon long-term returns to make the investment worthwhile. Development of housing stock similar to what RHA has now depends upon subsidies, which currently cannot be counted upon as HUD "soul searches" the path it wants to take in the near and long term.

It is no longer "business as usual" in Washington, D.C. They are unsure of their continued commitment. Funding was "waffled" of late. Section 8, not public housing, seems to be in vogue as the preferred method of supplying affordable housing to the qualified population of the United States. But, this too has its limitations in Central New Jersey as well as in other parts of the Country. In this booming economy, additional incremental private landlords willing to accept vouchers are not readily available. There is a shortage, at least in the North East, of housing in general. The appearance of vouchers from one year to the next then gone a few years later does not encourage new private development either.

Affordable housing development cannot depend upon the "old" methods but must employ funding sources not commonly used. The acquisition of land itself will be expensive and possibly unproductive for years until RHA has the funding to build upon it. It is time consuming and somewhat risky to layer all the financing necessary to develop affordable housing and to pay for cost of complying with the ongoing regulations without the prospects of a subsidy. This is a tough road that will take years but it can be done.

Therefore, the plans, statements, budget summary, policies, etc. set forth in the Agency Plan lead towards the accomplishment of our goals and objectives. Taken as a whole, they outline a modern comprehensive approach towards our goals and objectives and are consistent with the Consolidated Plan while addressing continued HUD requirements. Here are just a few highlights:

- Enhance the marketability and curb appeal of RHA's public housing units.
- Increase and improve the identity of RHA.
- Aggressively pursue Residents Opportunity Self-Sufficiency programs.
- Apply for Redevelopment Agency Status in the near future.
- Pursue alternate funding.
- In the day to day operations, keep in mind, quality of life issues are important.

In summary, we are on course to improve the condition of affordable housing in Rahway.

Section 2: PHDEP Plan Goals and Budget

A. PHDEP Plan Summary

In the space below, summarize the PHDEP strategy to address the needs of the target population/target area(s). Your summary should briefly identify: the broad goals and objectives, the role of plan partners, and your system or process for monitoring and evaluating PHDEP-funded activities. This summary should not exceed 5-10 sentences.

While police and tenant patrol presence provide a deterrent to illicit drug activity conducted by other tenants, guests and/or unwelcome visitors attempting to buy or sell drugs on the premises, this is only one facet of the problem. For a comprehensive strategy, drug prevention/intervention pregramming must take place. Drug awareness, educational and recreational opportunities will be provided to "get ahead of the curve" and take a proactive position in the community. A board goal is to build selfesteem. Rahway Housing along with its tenant association has and will partnership with various organizations which include Rahway Police Department, Rahway Board of Education, Rahway PAL, Union County YMCA & YWCA and counseling through Narcotics Anonymous.
